America's sentiment towards US+Iran

What Culturintel's AI-powered analysis of 3.2 million digital discussions- over 24-hours- reveal about how people in America feel about the U.S.'s response to Iran. As of January 8, 2020.

In 24-hours there have been 3.2 million digital discussions

Social Networks 16%

Message Boards

Sentimeter™

When we analyze the sentiment of people's unsolicited and open-source digital discussions reveal that 55% of all comments about the U.S.'s response to Iran are positive and neutral, with 45% being negative. That is basically, a statistical tie.

Against (Negative) 45%

unsolicited. www.culturintel.com

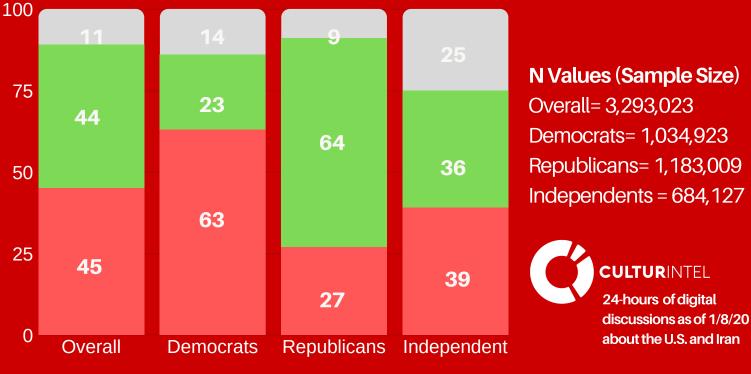

response to Iran is 50/50

Support (Positive) 44%

Neutral 11%

Sentimeter™by political party

about the U.S. and Iran Powered by Culturintel an Al-powered methodology using leading text analytics, natural language processing, and big data tools to turn the digital voice of the people into innsights that are